

The LOVIS CORINTH Lectures

Ralph Dekoninck

“The Emblematic Conversion of the Biblical Image in the Seventeenth Century”

Ralph Dekoninck is Professor of Art History at the Catholic University of Louvain and Chercheur qualifié at the Fonds national de la recherche scientifique; his research and publications focus on visual metaphor and the pictorial image in Catholic spirituality of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries.

Agnes Guiderdoni-Bruslé

“The Figure in Early Modern Europe: Device and Concept Between Signification and Representation”

Agnes Guiderdoni-Bruslé is Teaching Fellow at the Catholic University of Leuven; her research and publications focus on the role of the figure in sacred emblematics of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries.

---

Monday, October 24
5:00-7:00 PM
207 White Hall

---

ART HISTORY DEPARTMENT
EMORY UNIVERSITY

404.727.6282
arthistory.emory.edu