E-MAIL ALL ASSIGNMENTS TO rfuller@emory.edu BEFORE CLASS & BY THE DUE DATE.

EARLY ASSIGNMENTS

#1.b – “Why am I in this class?”
Minimum word requirement: 500 words
Describe why you enrolled in this class (BE HONEST) and list your arts experiences.
This assignment is worth 3 points.

#1.c – “Here’s why I don’t attend arts events!”
List 5 reasons (with no word count) as to why you don’t typically attend arts events.
This assignment is worth 3 points.

#1.d – “Significance of Videos” 7 & 8 PM (during Lab)
(If you cannot attend this lab session, you will forfeit this assignment & must find additional extra assignments later in the semester to make up for this.)
Minimum word requirement: 500 words
This assignment is worth 3 points.
Describe what you see as the significance of the 2 videos viewed in class and what you expect to accomplish during the semester. Be creative, take a risk and don’t worry about making a mistake.
PURPOSE: To increase your awareness of the somewhat unorthodox manner in which this class will be taught and organized throughout the semester, you are being given very little guidance for this assignment thus forcing you to be imaginative and creative and forcing you to go into an unclear direction, thus (as is the nature of theater and life) getting you to venture forth and (ultimately) achieving for the desired results!
This assignment is worth 3 points.

#1.e – “Telling Your Story”
Minimum word requirement: 1000 words
PURPOSE: This assignment is meant to provide you an experience in creative writing. Throughout the semester we will be discussing storytelling, creating a character and using your imagination.
METHOD: Imagine today is the last day of this semester, and you have just completed your Final Project for THEA 100. How do you feel? What has happened to you over the semester?
TELL YOUR STORY! Think creatively, and try to imagine what your story has been throughout the semester.
THERE ARE NO GUIDELINES FOR THIS ASSIGNMENT! This is your chance to think “outside the box” and imagine what your future will be! Be creative – take a risk!
This assignment is worth 3 points.
