Please this hard copy print-out of the assignment to the next class.

Also, find 2 pictures of a “character” in a newspaper, magazine, on-line, etc and bring those pictures to class on Tuesday, Sept 1.

Finding Your Passion – A Creativity Assessment

If you are moved by music or photographs, or if you are swept away by a dance, you’ve glimpsed a key to unlocking your deeper creative convictions...passion.

Answer yes or no to the question below for insights into your passions and creative inclinations:

Art and Photography
- Do you feel strong emotions when creating your own work or viewing others?
- Do images stay with you as memorable?
- Do you want to capture or recreate images you’ve seen?

Music
- Are you moved when you hear a favorite piece of music?
- Do these feelings stir or instill a vision in you?
- Do you feel music is a worthwhile human endeavor?

Dance
- Do you enjoy dancing or watching dance?
- Do you feel your body is capable of free physical expression?
- Are you aware of your own body language?

Food
- Do you enjoy the taste of food?
- Do you enjoy cooking and experimenting with tastes and textures?
- Do certain aromas sweep your mind back to past times and celebrations?

Writing
- Do you write letters to those you care about or to yourself (a diary or journal)?
- Do you enjoy reading?
- Have you ever memorized a poem or literary passage for personal reasons?

Decorating
- Does a lavish visual display inspire you?
- Would you love to do more decorating in your own surroundings?
- Do you feel a deep sense of accomplishment when trimming your house for a holiday?

Design and Craftsmanship
- Do you value or create handcrafted things?
- Does the touch and feel of hand-wrought items connect you to your childhood?
- Do you feel a special connection to architecture or a piece of furniture?

If you answered yes to any one of these questions, you have a creative passion!

Let that spirit out and – this is crucial – let it find you. It will come in a compelling moment.
You’ll feel a need, a true desire to express yourself creatively.
