

The exhibit "Different Perspectives of the American Dream and How Characters in 'A Raisin in the Sun' Acted According to Their Dreams" is an exhibit about the pursue of the American Dream by African Americans in the mid-20th century, and relates to topic to the famous Broadway play "A Raisin in the Sun" as well as its author, Lorraine Hansberry.