

Movie Projects Peer Critique

Name of student critiquing: _____

Name of movie creator: _____

Title of movie: _____

1. Was the movie clear, coherent, and well-organized? Were there any parts or elements of the movie that did not make sense or might need further editing?

2. Did the movie explore its topic in depth, with specific details and research included (and cited)? What did you find most interesting about this movie?

3. For more creative/interpretive movies, were ideas about the topic still communicated effectively? What did you take away from the movie, and did this match what the movie creator was intending to portray? If there was a significant mis-match, how could the movie creator get across their ideas more effectively while still retaining their creative vision?

4. Did the movie use clips, images, spoken word, and music effectively? How? (Be specific.) What did you like most about the audio-visual aspects? Any ideas for improvement?

Any other general comments about the movie (USE BACK OF PAPER):
